

Page 5 (Book page 31) shows a photograph of George W. Bass (son of Needham and brother of Crawford) and his family. George W. Bass and his wife Susanna, are seated in the 2nd row, center of the photograph. Morgan Bass and Lulu Bass Overstreet are daughters of George. This photos is circa 1902 (based on the children's (Helen and Walter) ages of Walter Bass and wife Arimanta.

Note, Walter C. Bass, Sr (1869-1923) and Arimantha are buried in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Kissimmee.

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/50847037/walter-c-bass>

The 1887 Kissimmee Directory:

(<https://sites.google.com/site/osceolacoflgenweb/history/1887KissimmeeDir>)

Bass Bros. (Walter and Thomas A. Bass), butchers, ss Emmett, 2d e of Orlando ave

Bass David (Bass & Co.), r country

Bass George W., carpenter, r Oak, ne cor Main ave

Bass George C., Jr., carpenter, r Brack, se cor Oak

Bass John T. (T. Johnson & Co.), r Verona, ne cor Rose ave

Bass Nedum F., mechanic, r Oak, sw cor Royal

Bass Robert, whol and ret groceries, and grain, Broadway, se cor Darlington ave, r country

Bass Robinson, boarding, r Lake, nw cor Royal

Bass Sheppard C., clk R. Bass, r country

Bass Thomas A. (Bass Bros.), r ss Emmett, 2d c of Orlando ave

Bass Walter (Bass Bros.), r country

Bass Walter C., shoemkr, r Oak, ne cor Main ave

Bass William, carpenter, r east end Vine, e of S. F. R. R.

Bass Zachary W., barkpr T. Johnson & Co., r Lake, nw cor Royal

Bass & Co. (D. Bass and J. J. Ward), livery, feed and sale stable, Stewart, nw cor Bryan