

Page 13 (Book page 103) describes Needham Bass' youngest son, Needham (Tude) Bass.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

Mrs. Needham (Tude) Bass St. Cloud

We were told to see Mrs. Lizzie Bass so we found her at the home of her niece, Mrs. Thomas, in St. Cloud. We were very sorry to find her not feeling at all well so spent only a short time with her.

She was the daughter of Mr. Owen Simmons and was raised in Orlando. During the years they spent in north Orange County they lived in Altoona and attended school in Umatilla, driving the distance of three miles with a horse and buggy.

She married Mr. Needham (Tude) Bass, the youngest son of Mr. Needham Bass, mentioned so many times in this manuscript.

Her husband's business was to buy beef cattle, drive them to St. Augustine, and sell them. They lived there for a few years, later moving to St. Cloud where they raised their own cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bass had two sons, Ackias and Elmer, and raised three orphan nieces.

Arnold and Elmer Bass. Elmer was a son of Mrs. Needham (Tude) Bass and Arnold was his cousin. The horse was from Ackias Bass' stable. (Courtesy: Eivin Thomas)