

Page 17 (Book page 178) shows a photograph (bottom right) of Croff Bass (Son of Quinn Bass and nephew of our Crawford Harris Bass). I believe it was Quinn's son (Crawford/Croff), who was responsible for the Raulerson killing.

Fruit packing house on Hilliard's Island, 1908. It belonged to the Wetherbees. Pictured from left, Henry C. Lightsey (manager), Myrtle Hilliard Crow, Mrs. C.H. Funk, Mrs. J.K. Hilliard, Mrs. W.B. Cohoon (in dark dress). The rest of the people are the "hired hands." (Courtesy: Mildred Schweikart)

Crawford and Mrs. (Mary Simmons) Bass. He was the son of Quinn and Jane Bass. (Courtesy: Elvin Thomas)